

Mustafa Aydın is Associate Professor and President of the Board of Trustees at Istanbul Aydın University, Turkey since 2007. He completed his bachelor's degree at University of Cairo and Ankara University before continuing his academic studies in Arabic Language and Literature. In 2003, he laid the base of Turkey's biggest foundation university, Istanbul Aydın University, first university to hold a corporate governance rating in Turkey with more than 40,000 students, 36 Research Centers, 2 think-tanks, 2 UNESCO platforms and 18 faculties. He has 14 published works and many columns published in various newspapers, journals and media outlets. For his CV in detail check <https://www.aydin.edu.tr/tr-tr/iau-hakkinda/yonetim/Documents/Baskan%20Özgeçmiş.pdf>

Muzaffer Baca is Chief Consultant of President and International Project Manager at Istanbul Aydin University since 2003. He is also General Secretary of Eurasian Universities Union since 2008, and Member of Board in Turkish Media Council since 2015. He completed his bachelor's degree at University of Ankara in the program of International Relations. He has many awards by Union of Turkish Press, Radio and TV Journalist Associations and Jaycess Turkey due to his programs related to developments in Middle East, Balkans, Caucasus, Gulf and Central Asia. He also has publications about radio broadcastings, Cyprus, and Western Thrace. For his CV in detail check <https://www.linkedin.com/in/muzaffer-baca-2050a3164/?originalSubdomain=tr>

Fabio L. Grassi is enabled as Full Professor in History of International Relations and is currently Associate Professor in History of Eastern Europe in Rome Sapienza University. He is internationally known as expert of late Ottoman history and contemporary Turkey. From February 2013 to August 2015 has been Director of the BAU Center of Eurasian Studies in Sapienza University. Since January 2015 is Representative of the Rector of Sapienza University in the Executive Board of EURAS. Since December 2016 is Counselor for the Iranic and Turkic Countries of the Rector of Sapienza University. Has got a Professorship honoris causa in Political Sciences from the International University of Struga (Macedonia). Has issued more than 80 publications, among them three large monographs. For full cv see <https://uniroma1.academia.edu/FabioGrassi>

Shazia Kousar is Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics and Commerce, at the Superior College Lahore, Pakistan since 2010. She completed her master's degree at International Islamic University, Islamabad in Economics, then obtained her Ph.D. from Quaid e Azam University, Islamabad in Economics, too. Her research interests and publications are related to quantitative analysis, socioeconomic dimensions of child mortality, female labour, sustainable economic development, economic growth, and unemployment. For her CV in detail check <https://superior.edu.pk/personnel/dr-shazia-kousar/>

Sanja Rocco is Lecturer at Zagreb School of Business, Croatia since 2003. She obtained her master's degree from the field of Marketing/Marketing Management, at Zagreb University, and completed her Ph.D. in the Faculty of Business and Economics at University of Maribor, Slovenia. She teaches and focuses on management, art-design, design management and tourism. For her CV in detail check <https://www.linkedin.com/in/sanja-rocco-3128151b/?originalSubdomain=hr>

Mohammad Nizamuddin is Professor and Pro-Rector at Superior University in Lahore, Pakistan since 2019. He completed his master's degree in Social Sciences at University of Chicago, USA, and Ph.D. in Demography & Population Studies at University of Michigan, USA. He has over 45 years of national and international experience in the fields of higher education, international economic development, and public policy. In his long and distinguished career with the United Nations System, he has been at the forefront of planning, designing and implementing projects geared towards creating global awareness and consensus about the importance of population to socioeconomic development. His main research expertise is about education reforms, population aging, census, and fertility in the context of Pakistan and the world. For his CV in detail check <https://superior.edu.pk/another-glory-to-superior-team/>

Zoran Grubisic is a Full Professor and Vice-Dean for international cooperation at Belgrade Banking Academy – Faculty for Banking, Insurance & Finance. He completed his Ph.D. in Economics and Finance in 2004 at Belgrade University, Faculty of Economics. His main areas of scientific research are open macroeconomics, international finance and investment in securities. He participated on many international conferences and congresses of economists all over the world where he presented his research papers. He serves as reviewer in several international journals.

Mohammad Abbaszadeh is Full Professor of Sociology at University of Tabriz, Iran. He mainly focuses on environmental behavior, ecological citizenship, religiosity, and social and economic capital. For his CV in detail check (in Persian)

<https://asatid.tabrizu.ac.ir/fa/pages/default.aspx?m-abbaszadeh>

Mirjana Radovic-Markovic is Professor at the Institute of Economic Sciences in Belgrade since 2004, and founded the Center for Scientific Research in 2012, which is of a multidisciplinary character at the High School of Academic Studies for Business Economics and Entrepreneurship in Belgrade. She obtained her master's degree and Ph.D. at University of Belgrade, Faculty of Economics. She has many articles related to entrepreneurial phenomenon, the resilience of small and medium-sized enterprises, women's entrepreneurship, and entrepreneurial economy. Currently, she is also a reviewer of national and international projects for the needs of the Ministry of Science, Education and Technological Development in Serbia. For her CV in detail check

<https://bba.edu.rs/nastavnici/prof-dr-mirjana-radovic-markovic/?lang=lat>

Maria Teresa Nicolas Gavilan is the Academic Vice-Chancellor of the Universidad Panamericana in Mexico City, Mexico since 2016. She holds a Ph.D. in Communication from the University of Navarra, Spain, where she also obtained a master's degree in Social and Political Sciences. She has published several papers and articles in national and international journals and books on topics related to global journalism, ethical issues in the media, and educational innovation, such as the use of television series as a tool for teaching professional ethics. For her CV in detail check <https://www.up.edu.mx/es/investigador/22157/maria-teresa-nicolas-gavilan-dra>

Kudrat-E-Khuda is Associate Professor of Law at Daffodil International University, Bangladesh since 2016, and Associate Member at the Centre for the Study of Global Human Movement, University of Cambridge (UK). He holds a L.L.M from University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh, and completed his Ph.D. at Institute of Bangladesh Studies, University of Rajshahi. He has many articles on environmental law, refugees, human rights, and national justice system, especially in the context of Bangladesh. He also two books about company law and epistemology of the law. For his CV in detail check

<https://faculty.daffodilvarsity.edu.bd/profile/law/kudrat.html>

Cemre Aydogan is Ph.D. Fellow at La Sapienza University of Rome, in the program of History of Europe since 2019. She obtained her master's degree from Central European University, from the Department of International Relations. She focuses on social and political history of Central and Eastern Europe. She has been writing her dissertation on distinct ethnic groups and their collective memories about the socialist period in Sarajevo. She has already published her last article on nesting orientalism(s) in Hungary. For her CV in detail check <https://www.linkedin.com/in/cemre-aydođan-1a0283168/>

Darko B. Vukovic is Associate Professor at National Research University, Higher School of Economics in Saint Petersburg, Russia since 2017. He obtained his master's degree from University of Belgrade, from Faculty of Economics with a specialization on Macroeconomics. He also completed his Ph.D. at University of Kragujevac, Faculty of Economics in Serbia. He has different publications on the fields of financial risk management, financial markets, financial players, investment finance, and regional economy. For his CV in detail check <https://www.hse.ru/en/org/persons/210380245>

Hasan Saygin is Full Professor of Engineering, specialized in Applied Sciences. He received his Ph.D. from École Polytechnique de Montréal, Institut de Génie Energétique at the Université de Montréal, and his M.Sc. in Nuclear Energy from Istanbul Technical University. He is currently Director of Application and Research Center for Advanced Studies, Istanbul Aydın University. His working areas are Computing in Physics (Nuclear Energy, High Energy Physics, Computational Fluid Dynamics, Thermodynamic, Microwave and Antenna), Computing in Chemistry (Nanoparticles, Environmental Sciences), Energy Policy (Sustainable Development, Renewable Energy Management, Climate Change), Information Technology. For his CV in detail check <http://hasansaygin.com/tr/oz-gecmis/>