

EURIE Training For Turkish Universities

22 Kasım 2019

TRAINERS

Edward PETERS | Professional coach - NLP Practitioner - Co-Founder of GE Coaching

Edward Peters is qualified and experienced coach and Practitioner of NLP with over 20 years' experience in the international student sector, and his aim is to bring coaching more into education. As Co-Founder of GE Coaching, an Irish company active in several countries, with the vision of bringing coaching and NLP into education, to enhance outcomes and maximize success for staff and students alike. Edward Peters will use the sessions to outline core coaching skills in a practical and interactive way that you can transfer to your daily work in student recruitment.

Mehmet Burak DEMİRCAN | Project Expert & International Trainer

Mr. Mehmet Burak Demircan, has graduated from Bachelor degree program of Ankara University on International Relations. He has experience on designing and delivery of training / capacity building / strategical planning for CSOs, Government Organizations and Individual Learners as well as drafting, compiling, editing a range of Training Handbooks & Manuals. He took part in different international project teams since 2010 as expert and coordinator.

Dr. Betül BULUT ŞAHİN | European Mobility Coordinator

Betül Bulut Şahin is the coordinator of European Mobility in International Cooperation Office, Middle East Technical University (METU). She holds a PhD in Educational Administration and Planning with a specialization in internationalization in higher education institutions. Her research interests are theories of internationalization, mobility programs, administration and strategic planning in higher education in terms of internationalization. She tries to combine her academic experience with the practical one; giving seminars on different topics of internationalization in both academic meetings and to her colleagues working in international offices in universities. In addition to Erasmus Program, she also participated in several meetings on Youth program and evaluated several Youth projects. She is a part-time lecturer at METU in educational sciences department.

ORGANIZER

Pınar ELBASAN, Ph.D.c. | General Coordinator

Pınar ELBASAN is qualified and experienced coordinator with over 11 years' experience in the international education and higher education sector. She is currently working as Erasmus+ Institutional Coordinator at Istanbul Aydın University and General Coordinator at EURAS-Eurasian Universities Union and EURIE-Eurasia Higher Education Summit. She is also Working Group Member for Erasmus+ Higher Education of Turkish National Agency.

Her research background areas include Erasmus+&EU Programs, International Projects, Intercultural Communication, Event Planning, International Student Recruitment, Student Counseling, Global Partnership, International Academic Relations, International Marketing and internationalization of higher education, she is also business development professional with a Ph.D.c. focused in International Relations from Kocaeli University and M.Sc. from Huelva University, Spain.

Ankara Üniversitesi Beşevler 10. Yıl
Yerleşkesi Eczacılık Fakültesi Bayer Salonu

 eurasedu
www.euras-edu.org