❖ THE - World Academic Summit 2021 in partnership with University of Toronto

The connections between our digital and physical worlds are rapidly evolving. The power of place in those dimensions is facing re-evaluation. Consequently, the modern university's status and mission are evolving.

Wherever you are in the world, you are invited to join us as we examine the complex interrelation between university and place, alongside university presidents, world-class researchers, political leaders and senior executives from transnational businesses from across the globe.

Agenda themes:

- Has the digital classroom replaced the campus?
- How do global networks complement local success?
- Place's impact on universities
- Universities' contribution to place

The summit will also feature the exclusive live reveal of the THE World University Rankings 2022, accompanied by a detailed masterclass examining the latest data.
