❖ THE (Teaching Excellence Summit) in partnership with Nankai University for Building Knowledge, Transforming Skills

THE (Teaching Excellence Summit) are delighted to be partnering with Nankai University for the THE Teaching Excellence Summit 2021 taking place on 16–18 November, Tianjin, China to explore edtech's role in the curriculum and in measuring the impact of teaching on students' aptitude for and attitude to learning.

Through the fourth industrial revolution (4IR), the demand for highly skilled workers rises and this summit will address the crucial role that universities and their faculties play in preparing graduates who can answer this need.

Agenda themes:

- ✓ Delivering quality education with impact.
- ✓ Classroom innovations: teaching in the 4IR.
- ✓ Employability and the future of skills.
- ✓ Measuring success: the transformative impact of teaching.

❖ EAIE (European Association for International Education) ACADEMY

Best practices in evaluating foreign credentials

Are you new to the field of evaluation and recognition of foreign credentials? This interactive online training course offers an introduction to the most important aspects of this dynamic field. Join expert trainers and your fellow community members for two days of hands-on sessions on 03 & 05 November to explore best practices in foreign credential evaluation.

The course is led by experienced trainers Marijke Blom-Westrik and Kristina Sutkutė and is specially designed to give you the tools to build a coherent credential evaluation methodology at your institution. This course comprises six hours of face-to-face learning and approximately two hours of self-guided study to be completed before the final learning session.

Programme

If you are a newcomer to the field of credential evaluation and recognition, this course will introduce key aspects of the field such as requirements regarding the application file, the criteria and procedures used as advocated by the Lisbon Recognition Convention; where you can find accurate, up-to-date information about other education systems; the importance of accreditation, ways to combat fraud and how to develop a step-by-step coherent evaluation methodology.
